

Programme

Autoclaves: Regulations, operation and validation

Duration: 1.5 day (10.50 hours)

Training: in-house

Public : Qualification/Validation Department, Quality Assurance Department, Production Department

Pre - Requirements: no pre - requirements

Training accessible to people with disabilities

Pedagogical objectives

At the end of the training, staff will know :

- The different types of autoclaves,
- The operation of the different types of autoclaves,
- The principle of sterilisation by autoclave,
- The different steps of qualification,
- The regulatory aspect for the validation of a cycle,
- Development and validation of a sterilisation cycle.

Content of the Training

- Identify the different types of autoclaves
- Identify the operation of different types of autoclaves
- Know the principle of sterilisation by autoclave
- Identify the different steps of qualification
- Identify the regulatory aspect for the validation of a cycle
- Understand the development and validation of a sterilisation cycle
- Applying good practice around the use of an autoclave and ensuring the efficiency of a cycle

Organisation of the training

Speakers:

Rodolphe CHOYV

Pedagogical and technical means

- Training materials and regulatory documents.
- Theoretical input, concrete case examples
- Participatory pedagogy
- Question and answer sessions
- Self-assessment using a grid

Monitoring and evaluation of training results

- Attendance sheets.
- Test of knowledge acquisition
- Training certificate.